

There is a lovely garden space at Exmouth Court and plenty of scope for creating colourful areas around the Independent Living Flats – and the residents didn't disappoint! A beautiful display of pots and bedding plants and what a colourful display beneath the trees. A very worthy contender for the competition but Exmouth were just pipped at the post by Housman Park in Bromsgrove. A very enjoyable afternoon spent on judging day – tea and cake all round!

