WELL DONE

Congratulations to Catherine who was voted by their colleagues as staff member of the month

BIRTHDAY

PARTIES

Here are some pictures from a few of the parties we all enjoyed last month.

July Birthstone

• Ruby •

A ruby provides strength, vigor, and nobility, helping protect its wearer from the evils of the world. It signifies love and passion while attracting good luck.

BIRTHDAY

- 6th John D
- 16th Mary D

EXMOUTH HOUSE

Monthly Newsletter

Exmouth house participated in care home open week.

Care Home open week is designed to connect homes with their local community, care homes are filled with incredible people and having an open week allowed us to invite people so they can learn more about the social care sector.

Monday– Tea Dance

Thursday– Games afternoon

Tuesday– Mocktails

Friday -BBQ

Tea Dance

Games

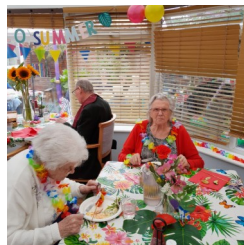

The Students from Bicton college were invited to an afternoon of games with a variety of snacks

BBQ

Mocktails

Exmouth's hard working district nurses were invited to join us for a mocktail

Some of the residents from Exmouth court joined us along with members of our Church group for a tropical themed BBQ

EXMOUTH HOUSE

Monthly Newsletter

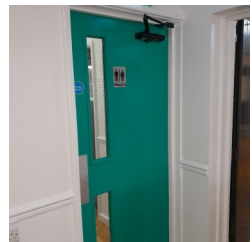

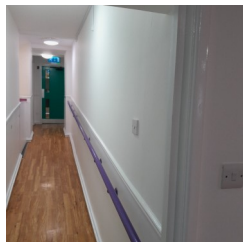

The care staff were treated with a cupcake and coffee morning to celebrate carers week

Everyone was looking very regal after the Jubilee party

Work to redecorate Exmouth house have been going well, the small lounge has been re-painted and we now have a feature fireplace, the main corridor has been completed with the doors to access it in a nice bright colour.

We have moved onto brightening up the gold wing, with the doors being painted in bright Amica care colours
