

For the first time in four years Exmouth didn't win the trophy - but they definitely put on a good show and the garden was ablaze with our Amica colours! The weather was perfect for the judging day and a good excuse for another garden party! A big thank you to all the residents who put in so much work and to the staff who helped them.

